Board Members in Attendance:

General Meeting

The meeting was called to order.

Charlie Tygard, Bellevue representative for Metro Council joined us for the meeting and shared the following:

He discussed the Bellevue Center – discussed the difficulty of attracting national tenants. He mentioned that Target, Carmike and Kohl's had considered the property.

The Bellevue neighborhood clean-up is scheduled for June 13, 2009 from 8-12 in the Bellevue Center parking lot. They will meet in front of the mall and form crews to do trash pick-up on highway 70 and graffiti clean-up.

He mentioned that the Buddhist temple was expanding and that townhomes were being constructed on Hicks Road.

He discussed the reappraisals and suggested that everyone check the accuracy of square footage and bathrooms/bedrooms. He also mentioned that property values in Bellevue have risen slower than those in the Davidson County area.

He discussed working on landscaping for Bellevue Middle School and that special attention was being paid to the Nashville Tree Canopy.

He discussed the Storm water projects and the new fee designed to fund these projects.

After Mr. Tygard spoke, the 2008 minutes were approved as submitted.
